The Netherlands - here we come!

It's only a short while until we board the plane to Holland. Saying goodbye to Cambodia for a little while and meeting family, friends and all of you again. We all look forward to it!

After sending this newsletter we plan to stay in Kep for two days to, together with the Alongsiders-team and others who are connected to the Shalom Valley camp-project, to give thanks to God for what's been done already and commit the rest of the process into His skill-full hands.

PRAY FOR:

1. ... a good finishing off here in Cambodia. Saying goodbye to friends and the handing over of work to our team-members.
2. ... the traveling. We travel on the 18th of July to the Netherlands and are happy to have good travel times. Pray for fun, patience, safety during the long journey and, off course, for lots of joy when seeing loved ones again.

3. ... the furlough itself. We did try to prepare in such a way that we do have a period of rest, followed by a period of sharing about what God is doing here. Pray that it will be encouraging and a true blessing for all who attend.
4. ... a good transition for the kids and for us to help them in it.
5. ... a good time with their classmates when they join the 'Regenboog-school' in after the summer break.
6. ... Sak and her family. We will surely miss her!
7. ... Aline Wisse and Christine Lichti, two ladies who will live in our house when we're away. Pray that they will have a very good time.

PRESENTATIONS

On the next page you will find a schedule of the locations and occasions where we plan to share about our lives in Cambodia, the work with Alongsiders and the camp-work for Shalom Valley. We know you, English readers, live worldwide, but still, we would love to meet you at one of these occasions;-)

Besides the joy and excitement that we feel, there is also the 'unknown' of it. This is the first time we go on furlough and we don't know exactly what to expect. For Amy this will be the first Holland-experience. Lots of new things...

All your help, prayers, thanksgiving, encouragements, financial gifts and many more are a huge blessing to us. Thank to be God and also to you!

Blessings,

Mart-Jan & Talitha,
Joy, Micha and Amy
